DESCRIPTION:

First stop is the Church, a central place in Marija Bistrica. Here we will tell you the story of the history of Marija Bistrica, the significant people who stayed here and traditional crafts. Then we'll walk through the beautiful beech forest. Passing through the vineyards and meadows through picturesque villages. We will enjoy singing birds as we sit down and rest on benches in the woods. Through villages with old traditional houses and green meadows we will reach the Hellenbach Castle, where we will tell you the story of the people who lived there. We'll stop and see the beautiful giant oak tree. We will slowly climb through the forest to the nearby hill, where there are numerous wooden sculptures of religious, traditional and historical motives from the life of the local population. Descent through the forest we will arrive at the point of departure.

ITINERARY:

The Church (A very spiritual place), local forest trail (beautiful forest beech), country road through village Podgorje Bistričko (traditional architecture), forest resting place (built with ecological materials such as wood and stone), Hellenbach Castle, sculpture Park.
