DESCRIPTION:

A path through a beautiful forest leads to the village of Meljani, rich in traditional architecture, hospitable inhabitants and overlooking the southern slopes of the mountain Ravna Gora. The ascent to the rocks called Pećine is reminiscent of alpine trails and rewards with a beautiful view, especially of the Trakošćan castle. A walk along the top ridge of the Ravna Gora mountain passes two mountain lodges, the Church of the Holy Three Kings, first built 400 years ago. At the highest point (670m) there is a tower for sightseeing. Beautiful views of Hrvatsko Zagorje and neighboring Slovenia are constantly present in this part of the walk. Descent by a steep path to the village of Meljani and return by forest road to the place of departure.

ITINERARY:
