Brief description of the excursion/tour and highlights:

Before driving, we will adapt your bicycles and introduce you to the safety rules and inform you about the content of the program. During the trip we will look at the Sanctuary of Bistrica Mother of God and Marija Bistrica. The Program is lightweight and technically undemanding for up to 4 hours. Distance is 15 km (14 km asphalt and 1 km gravel) with a total climb of 120 m. You must know how to ride a bike and can drive it for children of at least 16 years.

DESCRIPTION:

We will tell you the historical story about Marija Bistrica and present the traditional gingerbread crafts. We will visit the sculpture park with numerous sculptures made of wood with religious, historical and traditional motives. We will take a pleasant ride to the Wine peak and see the old chapel of the Mother of God. There is also a lookout from which we will look at Hrvatsko Zagorje. After a long downhill ride along the small vineyards and authentic wine houses we will arrive at the ranch "PIA" where we will mingle with the horses. By driving through the authentic village we will reach the Hellenbach Castle, where we will tell you the story of the people who lived in it. On the way back, we'll drive to the Church outside and look at it. Our program will be completed by presenting local wooden traditional toys under the protection of UNESCO.

ITINERARY:

Mariji Bistrica - Sculpture Park - Vinski vrh (translates to Wine Peek) - old chapel of the Mother of God - lookout point with a view of Zagorje - descent along small vineyards and authentic Zagorje vineyards - "PIA" ranch - Hellenbach Castle - Church in the open air
