DESCRIPTION:

The ride begins with a beautiful view of the Trakošćan castle and a conversation about its rich history and important owners. Driving through the village of Šinkovica, we reach the center of Bednja, a place of rich cultural and historical heritage. There is an interesting church next to which is the cemetery of the Drašković noble family, the most important owners of the Trakošćan castle and a protected linden tree, which is 250 years old. With fields and forests, we climb the slopes of the Ravna Gora mountain and drive through villages full of traditional architecture. We take the macadam road to Cvetlin and Trakošćan, the starting point. The pleasure of cycling allows you to get to know the surroundings of the most famous castle in Croatia and spend time with a friendly and authorized guide.
