Monday - Friday: the ship departs at 09:00 from the Port of Gaženica

Saturday - Sunday: 08:00 from the Port of Gaženica

Stop At: Sakarun Beach

Sakarun is one of the most famous beaches in Zadar County, located on the northwest coast of the island. The beach gained its reputation with the whiteness of the sand and clean sea, surrounded by pine trees that provide welcome shade in the summer

Duration: 1 hour

Stop At: Veli Rat lighthouse, Veli rat

The highest lighthouse in the Adriatic is located on Dugi Otok island, nearby the village Veli Rat. It was built in 1849 and with its impressive 42 m height it stands as a landmark of the north-western part of the island.

Duration: 45 minutes

Stop At: Dragove

A unique experience of entering a submarine military tunnel on a stand-up paddle, and learning a bit about its history. After the tunnels, we paddle to a small nearby beach accessible only from the sea.

Duration: 2 hours

Stop At: Brbinj

Playing a traditional Mediterranean balote (Italian "boccie") game on one of the many of the island's outdoor courts. Complimentary drinks included.

Duration: 45 minutes

Stop At: Beach Veli Zal

Paddling from the entrance of the Veli žal beach to the little island Mežanj where we relax, explore the island and go for a swim.

Duration: 1 hour 30 minutes
