Day 1

Our first stop is British fortress overlooking the entrance to the bay of Vis, then a ride to the military station guarding the approach from the north. Next we ride off road to the base in the west of the island in Barjoška to enter rifle nests and to walk through the underground tunnels. After a break in Komiža, a small picturesque fishermen place, we ride to Stupišće, the eastern base of Komiža. Both were built to protect Komiža in direction to Italy. Stupišće is the only base with three cannons still left in their position towards Italy. Next is the airplane base after which follows a gastronomical pleasure at the local family farmstead. There you will be served produces grown at the area, our most traditional dish called Peka and wine from the vineyard at the farmstead. That's not where the story ends – if you take a walk behind the house you will find a cave built as a refuge for the soldiers during the WW2. Later we go for planned accommodation or stay at the property and sleep in tents.

Day 2

Next day we ride for the top of Vis with a view to Komiža and sometimes all the way to Italy, if the weather is really clear. Then we ride to the underground communication center hidden on top the hill. We will walk the most part of the tunnels, if you are not claustrophobic. Not something you would find just riding around even if someone directed you to it. Next is pleasure time on the beach. After we relax we catch the ferry back to Split at given time.
